

The Daily Gazetteer.

FRIDAY, APRIL 20, 1744.

Vienna, April 11.

HE Day before Yesterday there was a great Council of State held, in the Presence of the Queen, in relation to the Affairs of Italy, when General Count Coloredo was admitted, and gave a large Account of the present Situation of Affairs in that Country. A Memorial was also read, which was presented by the Saxon Minister; and, after mature Consideration, Orders were dispatched for hastening the Movements and Recruits, that were intended for the Service of Prince Lobkowitz; but we do not apprehend, any final Resolution has been taken, as to the Conduct of His Highness, to observe, in regard to the King of the Two Sicilies, because Count Coloredo is still alive, it is certain, will carry him the Instructions necessary for his Direction in this critical Conjuncture. Duke Co-Regent, assists constantly at the Councils every other Morning, for the Regulation of the Forces; in which, it is said, they have under Consideration two Projects, one for retrenching a Seventh Part of the Exence of the Civil Government, by dismissing Officers; and the other for increasing the Revenue one Fifth; in order to which, some new Privileges are to be granted to such as undertake the work of Mines in Hungary. Our last Advices from that Country inform us, that Abundance of Burgundy Vines have been planted there, which answer extremely well, being superior in Body, and not at all inferior to that of France.

April 18. Count Rosenberg, Minister from her Royal Majesty, has had his First Audience of the King, in which he was treated with very great Respect. It is observed, that the Earl of Hyndford converse more frequently with the Ministers of our Country than ever; whence it is conjectured, that some Convention is on the Carpet with the Court of Berlin, for the Preservation of the Peace of Germany, if not for restoring that of Europe.

April 25. There is now no longer any Question, that the States General will take the most vigorous Measures, since they are satisfied, that all the Black Intentions of France are only Artifices to cover their real Intentions. The States of Holland are come to the following Resolutions. 1. To add Eight Ships of the Line to the Twelve already destin'd to serve in the English Channel. 2. To cause all the Ships of the Line to be fit for Service, to be repaired, man'd, and fit out with the utmost Expedition. 3. To direct the same, from 80 to 60 Guns, to be put immediately upon the Stocks. 4. To augment, if it shall be thought necessary, the Corps of 6300 Men, already sent to Great-Britain; as well as the 20,000 Men to be sent in Conjunction with the Allies. 5. To be ready, with all convenient Speed, to a new Augmentation, to act sotis viribus, with the Allies, if the Enemy should dare, as she has threatened, to enter into the Campaign with the Siege of Mons.

HOME PORTS.

LONDON.

Our last Letters from Copenhagen inform us, that 150 Swiss Families are on their Way hither, in order to be transported to Georgia, where they are to Field-Marshal Count Traun arrived on the 11th Instant, N. S. at Munich, and issued the necessary Orders for the Troops that are to quit the Electorate of Bavaria, in order to take the Field on the Rhine, or in the Netherlands.

They write from Brussels, that they have certain Intelligence from Paris, that notwithstanding the mighty Preparations made for a Siege on the Frontiers, the French Troops will continue to act on the Defensive, till it is certainly known what Part the Dutch will take in the present War.

According to private Letters from the Hague, it is look'd upon there as a Thing certain, that a Corps of 30,000 Men will be immediately assembled on the Frontiers of the Electorate of Hanover, in order to cover it from any Attempt that may be made by the French.

The same Letters say, that the Marquis de Fenelon has expressed a great deal of Resentment, on Account of the cold Reception given to his Speech by M. de Iffons, who pronounced the Answer of the States.

Yesterday a Denization pass'd the Great Seal to Abraham Levy, Ximenes Juda Supino, Joseph de Massahod, Isaac Fernandes Silva, Anthony Lucas, Isaac Morads Petras, and Joshua Brandon, Aliens born, to be free Denizens of his Majesty's Kingdom of Great Britain.

The same Day Emanuel Benewent, a Jew, was committed to Tothill Fields Bridewell, to hard Labour, for selling obscene Prints in the Court of Requests, and elsewhere.

Yesterday the Commissioners of the Land Tax sat at Guildhall, for the Examination of the men lately press'd to serve his Majesty, when upwards of 300 were brought from the several Jails of this City, a great many of whom were secured for the Service.

Last Tuesday died, at her House in Pall Mall, aged 80, Mrs. Sears, a Widow Lady of great Fortune, and Mother of —— Sears, Esq; a Gentleman belonging to his Majesty's Household.

Tis said, that the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen will be empowered, by Parliament, to ascertain the Price of Co's.

On Tuesday died, at his Seat near Watford in Hertfordshire, George Gale, Esq; a Gentleman of a large Estate; who dying a Bachelor, we hear, he has left Part of his Fortune towards Charitable Uses.

Wednesday Night, about Nine o'Clock, Capt. Bestland, in the Straights Trade, on his Return to his House in St. Catherine's, from a Tavern on Tower Hill, was attacked by three Fellows on the said Hill, under Pretence of Impressing him; but instead thereof, robb'd him of his Watch, five Guineas, some Silver, a Silver Tobacco Box, and other Things of Value.

We are assured, that the Rev. Mr. Robershaw, late Rector of Agmondesham, Bucks, has left his valuable Library of Books to the said Rectory, for the Use of his Successors.

On Monday next, Six Months Off-Reckonings for Cloathing, will be issued out at the Pay-Office, White-hall, to his Majesty's Forces; viz.

From the 25th of June, to the 24th of December, 1742, inclusive. And on Thursday following, Six Months Clearing will be issued out to the said Forces, for the same Time.

William Yonge.

Admiralty-Office, April 14, 1744.

THE Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty being desirous to invite and encourage Able bodied Landmen to serve on board his Majesty's Ships of War, and having Reason to hope, that from the Willingness several have shewn to do so, many more would come and enter, if they were rightly inform'd of the Methods of going about it, and of the Encouragement the Law allows them; their Lordships do hereby publish and advise, that all such Able-bodied Landmen, as are not under the Age of Nineteen, nor more than Thirty-five Years, who are willing to serve his Majesty at Sea, do go before some Justice of the Peace, Magistrate of a Town, or a Commission Officer of the Fleet, who are hereby desired to give them a Certificate of the Day of their Appearance, and of their declaring to them their Intentions to repair on board a Man of War, and at what Port, which Certificate shall protect them for a reasonable Time to proceed to the said Port: And when they arrive there, if the Port be Chatham, Portsmouth, or Plymouth, they are to present themselves to the Commissioners of the Navy; but if they come to London, they are to apply to the Regulating Captain, at the Castle in Mark-lane, which Commissioners and Regulating Captains have Directions to send them on board such Ships of War as they shall chuse to serve in: And for their Encouragement to enter into his Majesty's Service, they shall enter into Pay from the Day of the Date of the Certificate of their Entry; and shall be allowed a Penny a Mile Conduitt Money, from the Place they set out from; and also shall receive an Advance of Five and Thirty Shillings before the Ship they go on board proceeds to Sea.
